making a list...checking it twice

At this time of year we think of those who are dear to us. Our gift list may contain grandparents, children, close friends, teachers and colleagues. With such a diverse group of people to buy for, sometimes we don't know where to begin. Here's a thought: start with tea.

For the tea drinkers on your list, choose a blend especially for them. Perhaps Darjeeling, the "champagne of teas," for a hard working assistant, Earl Grey for grandfather, and a green tea variety for your neighbor. For children, berry teas and cute mugs make a nice gift.

And, even if you don't know whether the intended recipient is a tea lover, a basket full of treats and teas will certainly be appreciated. Your friend or relative can nibble the treats while serving the teas to guests.
